

SRI LANKA LAW COLLEGE NOTICE

Call for Applications - SLLC Law Review

Dear Students,

We are pleased to announce the establishment of the Law College Law Review, an exciting initiative conducted by Sri Lanka Law College to promote legal scholarship within our institution. We invite applications from dedicated and enthusiastic law students interested in taking on administrative and management roles in publishing the SLLC Law Review.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Key responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

1. Editorial Oversight: Contribute to the review and selection process of legal articles and scholarly works for publication.
2. Event Coordination: Organize and manage events, workshops, and seminars related to legal research and writing.
3. Membership Engagement: Foster a sense of community among members, ensuring active participation and collaboration.
4. Public Relations: Manage communication channels, including social media, to promote the activities and publications.

Application Process:

Interested students are invited to submit their applications, including a resume and a statement of interest outlining their motivation to join the SLLC Law Review. Applications should be sent to principalsoffice@slc.ac.lk (kindly indicate 'SLLC Law Review' in the subject line of the email) by December 08, 2023.

Selection Criteria:

- Strong organizational and leadership skills.
- Demonstrated interest in legal research and scholarly activities.
- Effective communication and teamwork abilities.

This is a unique opportunity to contribute to the growth and success of the SLLC Law Review. We look forward to receiving your applications and building a vibrant community of legal scholars.
